NOT A FOOT OF SOIL

Will the Mexican Government Yield to the United States.

If the Talk of Annexation is Persisted In WASHINGTON, March 12. - Senator Sherman to-day, in asking the Senate to disthe table, a memorial of the Fifteenth Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Arizona, praying the President and Congress to enter into a negotiation with the Republic of Mexico for the cession of sufficient territory joining Arizona on the southern side to secure a water port upon the Gulf of California, which would afford an outlet for the products of the Territory, laid before the Senate some very interesting documents of a mittee, referred the memorial to Secretary Blaine with a request for his opinion with re-gard to it, and this is the Secretary's reply:

BLAINE'S IDEAS. "Responding to your personal request for my views in regard to this petition, I beg leave to say that I can discern no hopeful prospect of any negotiation being successfully conducted with Mexico at the present time, even toward with Mexico at the present time, even toward the limited object in view. The temper of the statesmen and people of Mexico has been only recently manifested with regard to the alienation of any part of the national territory by the prominence given in certain circles on the Pacific coast to a movement for the acquisition of all or a part of Lower California by purchases. "For the information of your committee. I transmit herewith a copy of a memorandum prepared by the Mexican Minister of a conversation which he had with me on this subject on the 6th of June last, together with Sener Mariscal's memorandum of May 20, 1889, of which Mr. Romero gave me a copy. I hold unheastatingly that the Government of the United States is precluded by obligations of traditional good faith from appreaching the Government of Mexican territory, and I equally believe that no administration of Mexico could face the national sentiment that would certainly attend any indication of a disposition to infringe the provisions of the Mexican Constitution, which withholds from the Government the power to ced Mexican soil.

NOT A CLEAR PROPOSITION.

NOT A CLEAR PROPOSITION. "Moreover, even did the subject promise a favorable negotiation, the petition fails to set forth the proposition in sufficient detail. The northern and eastern shore of the Gulf of California does not appear to offer a deep water port until Libertad is reached, some 200 miles from the Delta of the Colorado, and the country between that coast and the present south-

California."

The following is a translation of the memo-The following is a translation of the memorandum which Senor Mariscal, the Mexican Minister for Foreign Affairs, under date of May 20, 1880, sent to Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister to the United States, and which the latter, under instructions, laid before Secretary Elaine as stated in the Secretary's letter to Senator Sherman:

"This department (the Mexican Department

to Senator Sherman:
"This department (the Mexican Department of Foreign Affairs) approved the article, which, in compliance with its instructions, you wrote and published in the North American Review, entitled 'The Annexation of Mexico,' because it is convinced that the total or partial acquisi-tion of Mexican territory, whether by force or by means of intrigues, does not enter into the combination of the American statesmen, to whatever political party they may belong.

CONFIDENT OF FAIRNESS. "As to the gentlemen who at present form the United States Government, and direct its foreign policy, we are sufficiently acquainted the silver patterns are especially with their high character and political ante- Something very recent is the beautiful sanicedents not to entertain the least doubt about their sense of justice and fairness, not only on this point, but any other subject. We have, therefore, complete belief that absurd plans of filibusterism, which are fortunately looked upon by the enlightened majority of the American people as disreputable, will not be approved by them, nor that they will lend any support whatever to the machination of badir support whatever to the machination of badly informed persons with a view of changing the decided opposition of our people to any alienation new colors. Mr. Barker has the sole

"We do not attach much importance to the revelations, more or less vague, and afterward contradicted, which have intely appeared in the American newspapers concerning organizations whose aim is to procure, at all hazards, the annexation of some part of Mexico, and especially of Lower California. But though we treat with contempt the beasts of idle and evil disposed people, who dream of wars of conquest, or of revolutionary movements plotted on our border, with a view of the annexation of a part of our country, it is not so with other manifestations of a respectable source, though they may have their origin in source, though they may have their origin in opinions equally destitute of foundation.

and presented to the House of Representatives at Washington, authorizing the Executive to negotiate with Mexico for the purchase of Lower California. I refer, also, to the opinion which, without any reservation, the Governor of California expressed about the great convenience of Spanish acquisition, and above all the purchase of our States of Senora and Sinaloa, about which no mention had before been made. No matter how much the Mexican Government might to inclined to overlook this double expression of an erroneous judgment as to our patriotic sentiments and our entire conformity with the opinion of our country in this regard, it cannot do so, considering the expression of views by the present officials of the State of California, which is coterminous with our territory, and interested in some of those amexations.

"We cannot look with indifference upon any thing coming from respectable authorities and it anyone should tell us that no serious and well formed plans on the subject is entertained by them, but that it is rather the influence of comthem, but that it is rather the influence of com-binations and exigencies of interior politics, which restrained them to express such ideas, we should be worried, even though sharing in this belief, to deeply lament that there were persons in California, with such misguided judg-ments respecting us, who have influence enough to induce Governor Waterman to make public atterances, without thinking of the effect which they might afterward produce in the re-lations with the neighboring nations.

UNANIMOUS DISAPPROVAL. "You are aware that the Mexican Government, in being always opposed to anything looking to the alienation of national territory, although it is disguised under the name of I although it is disguised under the name of a friendly negotiation, does nothing more than reflect the opinion of the Mexican people, who are entirely unanimous on this point, without distinction of parties. On the other hand, our political constitution does not authorize the public power to make such an alienation; it could not be carried out in a constitutional manner, even supposing that the opinion of the Government and of the people of this republic were favorable to such a step.

"It is well known that the administration of General Diax has done all within its power to strengthen the friendly relations between the two countries, by attracting the capital, the industry and the commerce of our neighbors, and by erasing even, the last vestiges of the prejudices which might divide them. It will continue to do so, fully convinced that such is the best and the only rational policy between two peoples placed by nature alongside of each other, each needing, according to their present grate of development, the elements which the other can furnish."

POSSIBLE RETALIATION.

"But if in the midst of these efforts to secure s good and cordial understanding for their common benefit obstacles should arise, intercommon benefit obstacles should arise, interposed, perhaps, inconsiderately not by the Government of the United States, which, being so enlightened and favorably disposed toward our country, is incapable of such a thine, but by State efficials of the same nation, in such a case, however disagreeable it might be to us and to a certain extent contrary to our international policy, we should be constrained to afford satisfaction to the Mexican people, so sensitive in this matter, having shed its blood and made immense sacrifices to achieve its independence and preserve the integrity of its territory; we should find our States under the stern necessity of adopting restrictive measures in regard to the acquisition by certain owners of real sestate concessions, etc., as far as the engagements already entered into constituting vested rights. ments already entered into constituting vested rights may allow. These steps might, however, be interpreted as showing a bad will on our be interpreted as showing a bad win on our part toward the American people, when we are, on the contrary, animated by exactly the op-posite sentiments. In order, therefore, to avoid such an interpretation, under the instructions of the President, I have made the foregoing ex-sistent on." planation."

The memorandum prepared by Minister Romero, of the conversation had with Mr.

Blaine, on the occasion of the presentation of the communication of Senor Mariscal, after stating that at the Secretary's request the Min-ister left with him the Spanish text and the English translation of Senor Mariscal's note, says:

NO THOUGHT OF IT. "The Secretary of State then informed the Minister that his personal views and those of the United States Government with respect to the annexation of Mexican territory were expressed in his note to Mr. Morgan, the United pressed in his note to Mr. Morgan, the United States Minister at Mexico, dated June 1, 1881, and which was published in the diplomatic correspondence appended to the President's message of that year. He added that the United States Government did not think even remotely of acquiring any portion of the Mexican territory, and that it would not support any project having such an object in view, as the United States had all the territory that they required for their recognizer and welfare, and equired for their progress and welfare, and content states that all the very content states and desired no more.

"The Secretary of State further stated that the United States Government could not prevent the newspapers or the citizens of this country from saying what they pleased on that or any other subject; but that, as regarded the acquisition of Mexican territory by the United States, he felt certain that the statements made were of no importance whatever, since public opinion did not favor further acquisitions, and that, even if any other administration should favor them he thought that it would meet with no support in the country for such a design. In conclusion the Secretary promised the Mexican Minister that he would reply in writing to the note of the Minister of Foreign Relations of Mexico, which had been read to him by the Minister of that Republic."

From the Des Moines, Iowa, Mail and Times.1 J. B. Loughran, ex-mayor of North Des Moines, and the Locust street manufacturer of steam engines and boilers, said recently to a Mail and Times reporter, "I have just recovered from a severe attack of la grippe. I was laid up for three weeks. I used Chamberlain's cough remedy, and applied Chamberlain's pain balm to my breast. These remedies were just the thing in my case. My child had croup some years ago, and we used Chamberlain's cough remedy with perfect success, since then we have never been without these medicines in our house. I had a cousin who was a printer and was employed in a job office in this city, where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deepseated cold and a terrible cough, and while setting up the copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured his cough, and that was the first time I ever knew anything of Chamberlain's remedies. I have been strong ly in their favor ever since. My own expericace and that of my family convinces me that these remedies are the best in the world

The most noted decorators at home and abroad are now giving exclusive rights for the sale of their specialties to but one house in each city. Such an arrangement is particularly advantageous to those who desire exclusive novelties in papers and decora-tions. The special designs of Morris, the celebrated London decorator, for 1890 have been received at 503 Market st., W. H. Barker having the sole right for sale in this city. Some superb tapestry effects are worthy of chief mention.

Mr. Barker is also the sole agent for the London firms of Scott, Cuthbertson & Co., Saunderson and Jeffreys, and has taken from the U. S. Custom House a large invoice of their latest productions. Among these the rich ivory effects for parlors and tary finished paper for chamber and bath-room walls. These papers are highly finished by a process that permits of cleaning them without at all injuring the designs. Here may also be seen the exquisite pro-ductions of Twyman, the noted Chicago decorator. This artist has prepared half a rights for Pittsburg and Allegheny. Curtains and carpets can be procured to match the papers, thus making an entire room beautifully harmonious in tone. To see these artistic creations arouses a desire to possess them.
